

EXPANSION—George M. Ebert, vice president and general manager of Aerocal division, and John Lawler, Aerocal president, toss first shovel of earth for new Torrance facility as plant's employees watch. New unit will comprise 60,000 square feet.

Aerocal Starts Building Additional Torrance Plant

John Lawler, president of Aerocal, addressed 500 employees here at groundbreaking of a new addition to the California division.

Lawler reviewed Aerocal's history and accomplishments. He discussed plans for expansion of the Aerocal division.

The Aerocal division is the latest acquisition of Aerocal, which includes facilities of the Longren-California division at 24751 Crenshaw Blvd., and 2576 W. Carson St., as well as those of the former Aerocal-California Corporation, wholly owned subsidiary, at 5651 W. Century Blvd. The total area in the new division includes 180,000 square feet of the latest and most modern equipment for production of aircraft and missiles.

The Crenshaw addition will expand this facility by 60,000 square feet.

George M. Ebert is the vice president and general manager of the new division. Headquarters will continue to be at 24751 Crenshaw.
